

A Proud Journey of Pride: Celebrating LGBTQ+ Legal Leaders
July 20, 2021

ERYK R. ESCOBAR, ESQ.

Eryk R. Escobar is a Trial Attorney at the Department of Justice, Office of the U.S. Trustee for the Central District of California. His practice focuses on bankruptcy and other insolvency matters where he helps to promote the integrity and efficiency of the bankruptcy system for the benefit of debtors, creditors, and the public.

Mr. Escobar previously served as an Assistant Chief Counsel at the Department of Homeland Security, Supervising Attorney at the Central American Resource Center, Associate Attorney at Bienert Katzman Littrell Williams LLP, and Judicial Law Clerk to the Hon. Maureen A. Tighe.

Mr. Escobar obtained his J.D. from Loyola Law School, and received his undergraduate degree from the University of California, Berkeley.